

2022 CALTCM Summit for Excellence Scholarship Application

Submission deadline: September 13, 2022

The California Association of Long Term Care Medicine (CALTCM) Board of Directors has endorsed 10 scholarships towards tuition to attend the 48th Annual Meeting entitled the 2022 CALTCM Summit for Excellence. Scholarship recipients will also receive a one-year pre-paid CALTCM membership. Interested persons must submit the application below with the required details; only complete applications will be considered (online application available).

About CALTCM

The California Association of Long Term Care Medicine (CALTCM) is the professional organization for California physicians, medical directors, nurses, pharmacists, administrators, and other professionals working in long-term care. We are positioned at the forefront of statewide efforts to advocate quality patient healthcare, provide long-term care education, and influence policy. Founded in 1975 as the California Association of Medical Directors (CAMD), CALTCM is California's statewide chapter of AMDA. In 2000, the organization changed its name to CALTCM, to recognize the importance of other disciplines in long-term care, and to better reflect the interdisciplinary team approach needed to carry out its mission: To promote quality patient care across the long-term care continuum through medical leadership and education.

Target Audience

Physicians, advanced practice nurses, gero-psychiatrists, pharmacists, licensed nurses, administrators, and other members of the interdisciplinary team who care for patients and residents in post acute and long term care.
